

EASTERN VICTORIA GP TRAINING

22 October 2015

Eastern Victoria GP Training Announce Senior Appointments

Eastern Victoria GP Training (EVGPT) today announced the appointment of Mr Neil Greenaway as Independent Chair and the appointment of Mr David Glasson as Chief Executive Officer.

Neil Greenaway brings a significant level of governance and health experience on a number of Boards and his background includes dealings with Government, executive management and key stakeholders.

David Glasson brings experience from his current role as CEO of Victoria Metropolitan Alliance (VMA) GP Training and senior national roles with the Australian General Practice Training (AGPT) program. His commitment to engagement and collaboration will be the foundation for EVGPT in its footprint in Eastern Victoria.

EVGPT is actively recruiting individuals to key positions within the organisation and looks forward to providing further advice of these positions in the near future.

The Foundation Directors of EVGPT look forward to the Chair and CEO appointments leading the organisation through transition and into the 2016 training year.

EVGPT is committed to working with stakeholders and GP training networks to help shape a world class GP training organisation.

Enquiries can be directed to: David Glasson david.glasson@vma.com.au or Julie Rogalsky julie.rogalsky@sgpt.com.au

Directors

Mr Neil Greenaway, Chair

Dr Grant Connoley

Dr Letitia Clark

Dr Nola Maxfield

Dr Ed Vergara

Dr Roheela D'Cruz

Ms Lea Pope

About EVGPT

Established in 2015 as a training provider in Eastern Victoria, EVGPT is one of nine Australian General Practice Training (AGPT) program providers in Australia funded by the Commonwealth Government. EVGPT's foundation members are VMA GP Training and Southern GP Training.