The Australian General Practice Training program (AGPT) Registrar Satisfaction Survey is an annual survey of GP registrars in training across Australia. These results show responses from the GP registrars who participated in the 2015 survey.

BEST ASPECTS OF THE AGPT PROGRAM

- "Good blend of education and practical experience"
- "The amount of support and fast feedback from administration"
- "My inspiring and supportive supervisor"

TRAINING EXPERIENCE

- 92.6% were satisfied with the education and training from their RTO
- 93.1% were satisfied with the induction and orientation from their RTO
- 93.2% were satisfied with the education and training from their training facility
- 97.9% were satisfied with their clinical work during training
- 95.0% were satisfied with the location of their training facility
- 97.1% were satisfied with their level of workplace responsibility

REGISTRAR CHARACTERISTICS

- 65.6% of respondents were female
- 73.3% were training full-time
- 53.0% were between 30 and 39 years of age
- 0.6% identified as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders

FUTURE PLANS

- In 5 years 98.4% of registrars want to be working as a GP
- Within 5 years 87.5% of registrars want to be involved in doctor training

LOCATION OF TRAINING FACILITY

- 43.7% Major cities
- 35.2% Inner regional
- 17.7% Outer regional
- 3.3% Remote

- 49.6% plan to stay after training
- 33.7% are unsure if they will stay after training
- 16.7% plan to leave after training

Most indicators described are accurate within 1 to 2 percentage points (at a 95 per cent confidence interval)